More Marines Have Arrived In S. Viet Nam

SAIGON UPI—U.S. military strength in Viet Nam today soared to more than 190,000 men with the twin landings of thousands of fresh Marines and infantrymen from Hawaii and Okinawa.

U. S. military commander Gen. William C. Westmoreland was on the beach at Vung Tau, 40 miles southeast of Saigon, when the first elements of the 4,000-man 2nd. Brigade of the 2nd. Infantry Division from Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, moved ashore.

To the north at Chu Lai, 60 miles south of the Da Nang airbase, 3,000 men of the 1st Marine Regiment from Okinawa scrambled off LSTs which met their troop ships. This brought Marine strength in Viet Nam to about 42,000 men.

After welcoming officers of the 2nd. Brigade, Westmoreland asked Pvt. Richard Hill of Covington, Ky., how he liked the two-week trip from Hawaii.

Hill said his only worry had been "that I might not make it to Viet Nam" since soldiers under 18 cannot serve here.

The Kentucky soldier and his outfit were hustled onto trucks, driven to a nearby airfield and flown to the Bien Hoa Base 13 miles north of Saigon.

The 1st Marine Regiment meanwhile moved out into the Chu Lai region to beef up Marine forces guarding the Da Nang complex and clearing Viet Cong guerrillas from the countryside.

Threatens Rail Strike March 31

WASHINGTON UPI—A union leader today renewed the threat of a nationwide railroad strike on March 31 unless agreements are reached on restoring firemen to freight and yard locomotive jobs.

H. E. Gilbert, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen & Enginemen BLF&E said his organization would strike against 170 of the nation's major railroads if the dispute was not settled by the end of March.

The union selected six key railroads for negotiations on the issue in hopes of setting a pattern that would be adopted by other carriers.

They were the Norfolk & Western, Atlantic Coast Line, Louisville & Nashville, Santa Fe, Chesapeake & Ohio, Baltimore & Ohio, and Pacific lines division of Southern Pacific.

Viet Problem Is Discussed By Marine Commandant

WASHINGTON UPI—Gen. Wallace M. Greene, Jr., the Marine commandant, said Monday it may take a massive effort by the United States to solve the "military problem" in Viet Nam, but he has not the slightest doubt it can be done.

Returning from a 13-day Far East tour, Greene told a news conference: "The Communists have instituted a 'reign of terror' among the South Vietnamese which violates the guiding principles for guerrillas trying to take over a country."

—Chinese-made anti-aircraft guns of about 50 caliber have been brought into South Viet Nam, increasing the "danger to our aircraft" and making necessary more emphasis on fighter planes as opposed to armed helicopters.

The Marine Corps in its area along the northern coast of South Viet Nam "owns the night now — not the Viet Cong." The Marines set up 100 ambushes every day and have three-fourths of their troops on the move at night.

—From the military viewpoint, he favors bombing North Viet Nam. But he understands clearly why President Johnson ordered a pause.

U.S. Digging In For Long Viet War

WASHINGTON UPI—The United States, digging in for a long war in Viet Nam, is expanding its armed forces to more than three million men.

At the same time, the administration today asks Congress for approval of American participation in an Asian development bank to support economic expansion in Southeast Asia.

Latest plans for the largest number of men under arms since 1955 were disclosed at the White House Monday by Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana announced the planned submission of the development proposal which would require about $200 million from the United States.

Nineteen countries are to be involved in funding the bank. Australia, Nationalist China, India, Japan and Iran are among those which have already committed funds.

Russia was invited to participate and Soviet delegates attended some discussions on the proposed bank's charter. But on Dec. 7 last year the delegation withdrew, calling the bank a "capitalist enterprise."

80 Now Dead In State Traffic

By United Press International

The grim possibility existed today that Indiana's 1966 traffic toll would hit the 100 mark by the end of third week of the month during which 98 persons lost their lives a year ago.

The 1966 figure today was at least 80, compared with 56 deaths recorded by Jan. 18 a year ago.

The fourth triple-death crash in three days in Indiana Monday claimed the lives of Susan Mossburg, 17, Sheridan, her 3-month-old daughter, Joan, and James Singleton, 19, near Sheridan.

Authorities said Singleton's wife, Linda, 18, also was injured in the crash, which occurred when the Mossburg vehicle failed to yield the right-of-way as it attempted to pull onto Indiana 47 in Hamilton County.

State Police said the Mossburg car rammed into the Singleton vehicle, which was traveling east.

Woman May Be India's Premier

NEW DELHI, India UPI — Support mounted today for Mrs. Indira Gandhi as successor to the late Premier Lal Bahadur Shastri, who died last week of a heart attack at the Tashkent Peace Conference.

Already, hundreds of persons were visiting the home of the 48-year-old daughter of the late Jawaharlal Nehru to congratulate her in anticipation of her election at Wednesday's ruling Congress party meeting.

Observers here predicted she would get at least 400 of the 551 votes to be cast by party members who poured into the Indian capital for the meeting.

Her only opponent, Morarji Desai, 68, the former minister of finance, continued to insist he would win, and he told reporters that he was being pressured to withdraw so Mrs. Gandhi's election would be unanimous.

---Viet Problem

—He rejected without qualification the proposal Monday of retired Army Lt. Gen. James M. Gavin that America limit itself to holding major bases in South Viet Nam.

Greene emphasized the importance of "pacification" programs in South Viet Nam, saying the people were "totally disorganized" and needed to be reorganized politically and rehabilitated physically throughout the country.

Unless the villages can be made secure, safe and trusting in the government, the war could be lost even if all the Communists were killed, Greene said.

He said that the war might require a long time, with much courage and sacrifice at home in the face of increasing casualty lists, and "possibly an over-all massive effort to bring this to a close."

Vaughn Director Of Peace Corps

WASHINGTON UPI — Jack Hood Vaughn today came home to the Peace Corps.

The 45-year-old Vaughn was named Monday by President Johnson to succeed Sargent Shriver as corps director.

Vaughn, presently assistant secretary of state for inter-American affairs, became regional director for Latin America when the Peace Corps was founded in 1961.

He stayed in that post until 1964, when Johnson named him ambassador to Panama. From there he succeeded Thomas Mann in the State Department. Vaughn said he was "not yet sure" who would take his place at the State Department.

Asked about his plans for the Peace Corps, Vaughn, with a laugh, replied: "I think probably as the first step I will send all volunteers to Latin America. That is my first instinct."

Vaughn's first experiences in Latin America were as a youth in 1940 when he traveled to Mexico.

Fidel Releases Shrimp Boats

TAMPA, Fla. UPI—Officials of Singleton Shrimp Co. awaited word today that two of its vessels had been allowed to leave a Cuban port where they have been detained since Sunday with nine men aboard.

Fleetmaster Bobby Canady said Monday afternoon he had talked with the skippers by radio-telephone and they reported they would be leaving either Monday or early today.

But no further word was heard from the vessels, the Penny Singleton and the Mark E. Singleton.

Company comptroller John Daniels said Monday night the skippers were under orders to call as soon as they entered international waters. Daniels said the skippers may have decided to try to salvage some equipment from a third vessel, the Charles Singleton.

The Charles Singleton ran aground in Cuban territorial waters early Sunday, the firm said, after the vessels were blown off course while en route to fishing grounds in the Gulf.

The skipper and two crewmen were taken off the vessel which at last report was being broken up by the waves. The other two vessels were ordered to shore by a Cuban helicopter and a Cuban coast guard vessel.

Canady said that Jones and Daniels indicated in their call that the nine seamen, all from here, were being well treated by the Cubans.

Zero Weather At South Bend

By United Press International

South Bend experienced zero weather today for the second morning in a row as the longest and coldest wintry spell kept a firm grip on Indiana.

Near zero temperatures were recorded elsewhere over the Hoosier northlands, but central and southern sections escaped the biting cold, although icebox readings were registered there, too.

It was 5 above at Fort Wayne, 10 at Lafayette, 13 at Indianapolis and 18 at Evansville, and snow was falling before and after dawn at Evansville and South Bend.

At Indianapolis, the mercury stayed below freezing for the third day in a row Monday, the first time that's happened this season.

Light snow and flurries continued to harass the snow-prone South Bend area. Four inches of white lay on the ground this morning, nearly half an inch of it added the last 24 hours.

Forecasts indicated warmer temperatures Thursday. Until then, however, the mercury was expected to range no higher than the 20s today, dropping to lows of 5 to 18 above zero tonight and rising to the 20s again Wednesday.

Two Job Corps Trainees Fined

INDIANAPOLIS UPI — Two Camp Atterbury Job Corps trainees were fined and given suspended one-week jail terms Monday on charges of beating two officials at the center Sunday.

U.S. Commissioner Thomas O. Gibson dealt out the punishment, which included $75 fines, when the men appeared before him on federal warrants charging assault on a government reservation.

Louis A. Torres, 17, Brooklyn, N.Y., was charged with attacking his resident adviser, Anthony DeMello, Earl L. Lawrence, 17, Charleston, S.C., was accused of assaulting Roy Jones, operations officer at the center. Both DeMello and Jones were treated by a doctor.

The attacks occurred when the youths returned to the center early Sunday after spending the evening in Indianapolis. Both had been drinking, according to government attorneys.

Belgium Offers A Compromise

LUXEMBOURG UPI — Belgium today proposed a compromise to help end the dramatic split between French President Charles de Gaulle and his five European Common Market partners. Gaullist delegates quickly telephoned Paris for advice.

Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak suggested to the Common Market ministerial council they go part of the way to meet a De Gaulle demand that France have continued veto power over market decisions.

De Gaulle wants sole veto powers as the price for ending his six-month boycott of the market. He also would strip the organization's executive body of much of its power.

The other members — West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg — have shown little inclination in the present meeting ending today of defying the French leader.

Spaak proposed a three-point plan: —Requiring unanimous consent on all proposals being considered by the economic community.

—Requiring that in the future on all issues of "vital interest," the ministerial council must meet and consider a matter four times before approving it on a less than unanimous vote.

Woman's Study Club Hear Dr. Shumaker

Dr. Arthur Shumaker of the English and Statistics Department of DePauw University and author of 'A History of Indiana Literature,' was guest speaker for the January meeting of the Woman's Study Club held recently at the home of Mrs. Harry Wells.

Dr. Shumaker, serving as a speaker for the Sesquicentennial observance, related interesting facts about Indiana poets, novelists, humorists, and historians with emphasis on those who began writing before World War II. Among those mentioned were Alice and Phoebe Cary, Sarah T. Bolton, William Vaughn Moody, James Whitcomb Riley, Leu Wallace, Booth Tarkington, George Ade, Kin Hubbard and many others.

Early Indiana novels tended to be romantic, written for entertainment only, while some later ones were historical or pre-occupied with a timely message such as the books written by McCready Houston, Margaret Weymouth Jackson, Jeanette C. Nolan, and others.

Dr. Shumaker's presentation was both informative and entertaining. It was followed by a general discussion with club members offering personal relationships with many of these people who have played an important part in the development of the culture of Indiana.

Count Winners and Losers At Some Trump Contracts

By Alfred Sheinwold

You are taught to count your losers at a trump contract. If you have too many losers, concentrate on getting rid of one. This is good advice, but with a difficult hand in which you must ruff in dummy as well as in your own hand, count your winners as well as the losers.

South won the first trick with the queen of diamonds, cashed the top hearts to get rid of a spade. This good play cost him his contract.

South ruffed a heart and led the other spade. West took the ace of spades and led another trump. Declarer won in dummy and ruffed another heart, setting up dummy's ten.

At this point South held one trump and five clubs. Dummy had two trumps, a good heart, and K-x-x of spades. No matter how he played South had to lose two more tricks.

If South led his trump to draw West's last trump, dummy could cash the good heart but would have to give up the two low spades. If South, instead, ruffed a club in dummy to ruff a low spade, he could not get back to dummy to draw the last trump. In this case, dummy would not get a trick with the ten of hearts.

ONE TRICK SHORT
If South counted his winners he would see that he would wind up with only ten tricks. The best chance is to save a spade entry to dummy.

After winning the first trick with the queen of diamonds, South takes the top hearts (discarding a club) and ruffs a heart. Then he leads a spade. West takes the ace of spades and leads another trump to dummy's jack.

South ruffs another heart, leads a spade to the king (the crucial trick) and ruffs a spade. Now he can ruff a club with the seven of diamonds, draw the last trump with the ace of diamonds and cash the ten of hearts as the eleventh trick.

DAILY QUESTION
As dealer, you hold: S-A Q J H-Q 4 2 D-5 3 2 C-A 9 8 6
What do you say?

ANSWER: Pass or bid one club. This is a borderline hand, and most experts would prefer to pass. You would prefer to open if you had a good sprinkling of tens and nines or even if you had three small hearts and four clubs headed by the ace-queen. A queen is more valuable when accompanied by the ace or king of the same suit.

Court Rules On Macon, Ga. Park

WASHINGTON UPI — The Supreme Court ruled 6-3 Monday that a Macon, Ga., park walled by a former Confederate soldier for the use of whites only must be open to Negroes also as long as the city plays any role in its operation.

The city relinquished controlling the park through a board of managers two years ago after Negroes were allowed to use it. Under private operation, they were barred. But the court held in Monday's opinion that the record shows no change in city maintenance and concern.

On this basis, the opinion by Justice William O. Douglas held that any return to the "white only" policy would violate the 14th Amendment to the Constitution.

Legion Honors IU Organization

INDIANAPOLIS UPI — The Indiana University student government has been awarded a special citation from the Indiana Department of the American Legion for its recent "bleed-in" at the Bloomington campus.

David Frick, president of the IU student body, accepted the citation Saturday night at the Legion's mid-winter conference here. Department commander George Morton, Sr., made the presentation.

Blast Destroys Oil Refinery

RAUNHEIM, Germany UPI — A huge explosion rocked the sprawling Caltex oil refinery here today killing and injuring workers and destroying the main plant building.

At least one person was killed and 30 injured, police said. They feared more persons died in the fire that followed the explosion.

Police said the explosion "blew the roof right off" the giant building housing the refinery's main processing installations.

Flames from the fire shot as "high as a four-story house," one policeman said. "The heat was so intense nobody could get within 50 feet of the fire."

Hoosier Held By Viet Cong

BLUFFTON UPI — Douglas Ramsey, 31, Boulder City, Nev., a civilian employee of the United States Operations Mission who was kidnapped by Viet Cong guerrillas Monday, is a native of Wells County.

Ramsey was born at Tocsin. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Ramsey of Boulder City, who moved from Tocsin while Ramsey was a boy.

He attended high school at Wahsatch Academy in Utah, and college at Occidental in Pasadena, Calif. After a year of graduate work at Harvard in political science, Ramsey served several years in the Air Force Intelligence and then went to the State Department as a foreign service officer.

Ramsey has been in Viet Nam about three years.

He is an only child and a bachelor.

Ramsey was home for Christmas with his parents and they have received several letters from him since he returned to Viet Nam. His father is the administrative officer for the National Park Service in Boulder City.

Held On Bond For Beating Cop

MUNCIE UPI — James Green, 28, Muncie, was held on $6,000 bond today in connection with the beating of off-duty Delaware County Deputy Sheriff Gerald Golden, 24.

Green was charged with assault and battery with intent to kill. Police said Golden sustained a broken jaw and cuts on the head when he tried to help stop a family fight in his neighborhood. He was hospitalized in satisfactory condition.

Police said Green's father went to the Golden residence and asked the deputy to go to the Green home, but en route they encountered young Green and the deputy was knocked unconscious.

Schools Receive $3,586 Refunds

INDIANAPOLIS UPI — A report made public by the Indiana State Board of Accounts today showed that Madison Consolidated Schools received refunds totaling $3,586 of which most was reimbursement for payment of transfer tuition for welfare children.

The report covered July 1, 1960, to June 30, 1964. A refund of $2,265 was paid to the Madison schools by the Jefferson county auditor. The report said "The Madison Consolidated Schools had paid a number of transfer students in error."

"The children involved were wards of the Jefferson County Welfare Department," the report said, "and therefore the cost of their education is the responsibility of the county commissioners."

The money was paid to Bloomington, Richmond and Fort Wayne schools.

In addition, there were numerous small refunds covered in the report, including payments to business and professional persons while they were members of the school board. These included $249 for laundry, $120 for medical services, $139 for furniture, $35 for welding.

Neighborhood Turns On Hero

NEW YORK UPI — An heroic little grocer who braved an angry mob to come to the aid of a surrounded patrolman is an outcast in his own neighborhood today, friendly and out of business.

"My own people, my own people have turned against me," said Puerto Rican born Enrique Negron of his recent days in the east Bronx neighborhood where eight months ago he be-we'll help you." Suddenly someone in the crowd closing around the patrolman and two holdup suspects plunged an icepick into Negron's back and the grocer fell as police reinforcements arrived.

Negron spent a week in the hospital and was hailed briefly as a hero. He received a $1,000 check from the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association, a personal note from Vice President

Hubert Humphrey praising his "courageous act," and several plaques.

But in the neighborhood Negron was not called hero. Instead his former friends and customers passed him by with curses of "niggerhater" and "cop lover." He had to sell the grocery last June because nobody came to buy anymore.

"We had a lot of friends. They felt bad that I helped a cop," said Negron in his halting English. With the store for which he had saved since age 10 gone, nobody in the area willing to hire him, and his savings down to $300, Negron says he probably could get welfare but doesn't want to live off charity.

Patrolman Siegel, who has talked to Negron several times since the incident, says, "He's had it pretty rough. They just seemed to turn on the poor guy. And he's really such a nice little fellow. I should know. If it wasn't for him I'd probably be dead."

But, says Negron, "If I had to do it again, I'd do it. It's the way I am. I don't like to see anybody abused."

Foreign News Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM

In Jakarta, President Sukarno passed out taploca cookies, continued to speak as if he were the undisputed ruler of 100 million Indonesians, which he is not, and discussed the nation's economy which could scarcely be worse.

Speaking to newsmen, he offered the job of ministers of economic affairs to anyone who would volunteer.

"But," he said, "if he fails to bring about an improvement in the present situation within three months, I will have him put in jail for five years."

It was the echo of the voice of the old Sukarno, president of Indonesia for life, but in reality it was a Sukarno whose ministers must confer at every step with the army which, since the unsuccessful Communist coup of Sept. 30, is the real ruler of Indonesia.

And even if some financial wizard could turn the plummeting Indonesian economy around within three months, it might not be soon enough.

The lurid billboards attacking the United States and the ugly caricatures of Uncle Sam have disappeared from Jakarta streets but others have taken their place.

On one of Jakarta's main thoroughfares, a slogan demands in big black letters: "Hang the ministers." "Remember the people's suffering," says another.

For the first time since Indonesian independence, a sincere attempt is being made to place the economy on a sound basis. But the results so far have only heaped disaster upon disaster.

Student demonstrators who all through October, November and December had directed their anger against the Communists, now were demanding action by the government to halt inflation.

Last month the government devalued the rupiah by 1,000 to 1 in order to bring it closer to reality. Another government order raised all wages by 500 per cent.

Merchants were warned that death could be the penalty for anyone raising prices.

But in the battle to halt inflation the government itself was one of the greatest offenders. In two months, government-controlled gasoline prices jumped from four rupiahs a liter (about one quart) to 1,000. Sweeping increases were ordered in other government-controlled enterprises — post and telecommunications, rail and air fares and other public services.

Commodity prices kept pace. The price of rice jumped from 2,800 rupiahs per liter to 5,000 in six days. Beef went from 2,000 rupiahs per pound to 15,000 in three days. The black market also reacted quickly. A man whose pay had jumped to 150,000 rupiahs monthly from 30,000 found that his actual monthly earnings still came to less than $5.

Blame for this sad state of affairs falls on many quarters — corrupt government officials, profiteering merchants, hoarders. But the real blame falls upon Sukarno, so busy with "guided democracy" he failed to look after his people.

An Apology

TRENTON, N. J. UPI — New Jersey Gov. Richard J. Hughes has publicly apologized for a suggestion by the Ocean County Democratic Committee that Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy run for the U. S. Senate.

Hughes, a Democrat, told a news conference Monday the move by the committee to persuade the widow of President John F. Kennedy to enter politics was "deplorable . . . a discourteous bandying of the name of this wonderful and distinguished lady."

Prevents Suicide

MINEOLA, N. Y. UPI — A closed circuit television system that keeps an eye on the cell block in Nassau County police headquarters was credited Monday with stopping a suicide by a jail inmate.

The inmate, Louis Ford, 40, of New York, was spotted on a monitor hanging from a sports shirt tied around an overhead bar. Policemen rushed to the cell, cut Ford down and revived him with artificial respiration.

Penn State permitted only 10 completed passes against it during the 1938 football season.

WASHINGTON UPI— Government food assistance programs were available to needy persons and school children in more communities in the first three months of the fiscal year which started July 1 than during the same period a year earlier, according to Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman.

But individual participation in the programs and amounts of foods donated declined in some categories because of improved economic conditions, Freeman said.
At the end of September, 1,593 counties and 236 cities were distributing government-donated foods to needy families, compared to 1,558 counties and 222 cities in the same month of 1964, Freeman said. The food stamp program functioned in another 118 areas in 31 states and the District of Columbia.

The Crop Reporting Board estimated the number of sheep and lambs on feed Jan. 1 in 26 states for slaughter market at 3,335,000 head, up 1 per cent from the 3,291,000 head on Jan. 1, 1965.

The board said the number of sheep and lambs on feed in the corn belt states on Jan. 1 was down 4 per cent from a year earlier, but in the western states the number was up 10 per cent.

Ball State to Meet Evansville In Only Scheduled Conference Game

Final exams have put an academic press this week on what has become a five-team race for the Indiana Collegiate Conference basketball championship. Only hardwood business to be transacted this week in the loop will be in the Pocket City where (2-2) Ball State, one of five teams at or above .500, will clash with second place Evansville (2-1) Saturday.

There'll be plenty of extra-mural sniping though while the current front-runner, 4-1 Indiana State, enjoys the top bracket for a while unmolested and uncontested.

Considerable national prestige will be at stake Wednesday when the ICC sends its Evansville entry up against first ranked Southern Illinois U. in Evansville. In other outside action the ICC, which has had three of its teams—Evansville, Indiana State and Valparaiso—among the top 20 small colleges at one time or another during the campaign includes: Ball State at Eastern Ill. U.; Taylor at Indiana State; DePauw at Lake Forest; and Washington U. at Valparaiso.

The ICC is 47-21 outside the league.

The Sycamores climbed to the top by taking a rare ICC road victory at St. Joseph's last week. The verdict also enabled State's Jerry Newsome to edge barely ahead of last week's scoring leader, Larry Humes, of Evansville.

Newsome is on top now 28.2

to Humes' 28.0 with a personal duel set for Evansville Jan. 29. Newsome's team mate, Butch Wade, who missed action at St. Joe and at Marquette, stayed in third at 24.3. DePauw's Morgan Everson and Butler's Ed Schilling remained in fourth and fifth at 22.5 and 20.6, respectively.

Rich Edgerton, Indiana State, and Tom Smith, Valparaiso, hung on to their specialties, field goal and free throw shooting. Edgerton is there with a .769 average (18 of 29) and Smith boosted his accuracy to .953 on 20 of 21.

Evansville's Howard Pratt vaulted over last week's pace setter, Mack Sawyer. Ball State, in rebounding, Pratt carries a 12.6 average. Sawyer and DePauw's Tom McGurk are tied for second with 11.5.

Indiana State added to its statistical laurels in the team department. The Sycamores stayed at the head of the class in team offense (100.4) and team shooting (.537). Butler moved in front in a couple of other departments, team defense (.79.8) and team free throw shooting (.778).

The Bulldogs' mark at the 15-foot line happens to be headed for the ICC record which was set by Evansville a decade ago at .760.

The tailenders, St. Joseph's and DePauw, ironically head up the two remaining categories, rebounding and fouls committed.

St. Joseph's held on as the best rebounding team in the ICC with a 52.0 capacity per game. DePauw replaced Evansville as the least foul inclined club, committing an average of 17 personals per game.

Indiana Takes First Big 10 Tilt; Auburn Beats Tenn.

By United Press International

Indiana, the Big Ten conference cellar-dweller, turned on Iowa for a 73-61 upset. Backcourtmen Vernon Payne (23) and Max Walker (17) led the Hoosiers to their first conference victory in four starts.

Desire can sometimes overcome a height disadvantage in college basketball.

Auburn proved it Monday night against a taller Tennessee quintet. The shorter Tigers consistently got the inside position under the backboards. They picked off the rebounds and the victory, 51-46.

Lee DeFore and Joe Millsap led Auburn with 13 points each.

Jim Cornwall paced the Volunteers with 11.

Chuck Williams and Chuck Gardner each poured in 18 points to lead Colorado to a 71-63 victory over Big Eight foe Iowa State.

The Dayton Flyers zipped to a 98-66 humiliation of St. Francis of Loretto, Pa. Forwards Don May and Glinder Torain paced Dayton with 22 points each and the Flyers dominated the backboards.

Ohio University's balance proved the difference against Seattle and the Bobcats came away with an 84-73 victory over their West Coast foe.

Rich Edgerton, Indiana State, and Tom Smith, Valparaiso, hung on to their specialties, field goal and free throw shooting. Edgerton is there with a .769 average (18 of 29) and Smith boosted his accuracy to .953 on 20 of 21.

Evansville's Howard Pratt vaulted over last week's pace setter, Mack Sawyer. Ball State, in rebounding, Pratt carries a 12.6 average. Sawyer and DePauw's Tom McGurk are tied for second with 11.5.

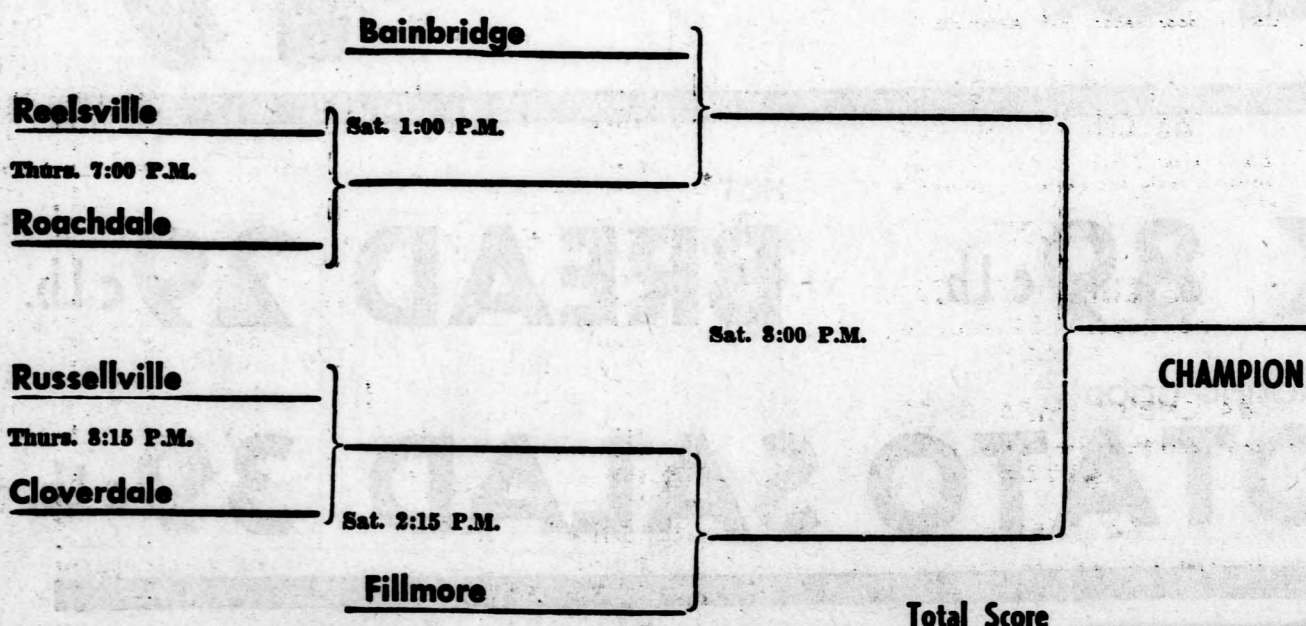

Indiana State added to its statistical laurels in the team department. The Sycamores stayed at the head of the class in team offense (100.4) and team shooting (.537). Butler moved in front in a couple of other departments, team defense (.79.8) and team free throw shooting (.778).

The Bulldogs' mark at the 15-foot line happens to be headed for the ICC record which was set by Evansville a decade ago at .760.

The tailenders, St. Joseph's and DePauw, ironically head up the two remaining categories, rebounding and fouls committed.

St. Joseph's held on as the best rebounding team in the ICC with a 52.0 capacity per game. DePauw replaced Evansville as the least foul inclined club, committing an average of 17 personals per game.

1966 Putnam County Tourney Drawing

Banner Will Sponsor "You Guess It" Contest

Above is a diagram of the schedule of the Putnam County Basketball Tournament that is to be played January 20 and 22. This year the Banner is again sponsoring the "You Guess It Contest" where fans get a chance to win prize money for the most correct entry. First prize of $10 will go to the entry that is: (1) Postmarked the earliest (2) Contains the correct prediction of game winners and total number of points for the tourney. The second place prize of $5 will be awarded to the entry that is: (1) Post marked the earliest (2) Gives the most accurate scores for every game played. All entries will be sole possession of the Banner and entries will be judged at the discretion of the judges. Just mail your entry (that must come from the Banner) to The Daily Banner, 25 South Jackson Street, Greencastle, Indiana.

HARDWOOD HIGHLIGHTS

By Frank Puckett Jr., Sports Editor

The Banner's "You Guess It" contest has seemed to capture your attention. The first time anyone knew about the contest was Friday night when the press ran off Friday's edition. Saturday morning I got three entries to the contest postmarked the same night. Fast work, huh?

A weekend of out-of-county action caught all the Putnam County teams playing somewhere, except for undefeated Cloverdale. Cloverdale has battled it out to an even dozen victories thus far with no losses and according to fans who have entered the "You Guess It" contest, Cloverdale will win the County Tournament.

The Clovers will have the toughest route to the final game of the tournament. Thursday night at 8:15 they will have to tangle with Jim Sheese and his Russellville Bees. The Bees are 6-7 after taking Reelsville by surprise last Friday night 52-49. If the talented Clover crew takes that one they will have to battle Fillmore in the second game of Saturday afternoon's two session performance. It will be the third time this year that the Clovers have bucked up against coach Darrell Hoyer and his tall Cards. I've heard people say, and it sounds logical, it takes a mighty tough team to beat any one opponent three times in one season.

Supposing Cloverdale knocks off the Cards they will be ready for the championship at 8:15.

In the other bracket of the tourney Reelsville will battle with Roachdale at 7:00 Thursday night. What will come from that one is just about anyone's guess. Reelsville has a 7-4 record, being beat by Fillmore, Cloverdale, Van Buren, and Russellville. Roachdale has also bowed to Fillmore and Cloverdale, but the Hawks did turn the table on Russellville. Whatever the outcome the winner will have to knock up against high scoring Bainbridge Saturday at 1:00.

Bainbridge is a sure enough bet for the victory, if someone doesn't throw a block in their way, and a bid for the championship that night.

But what say if (pardon the lingo), Cloverdale and Bainbridge has to tangle in the final of the tourney? Bainbridge will be the ball club with the least effort in the final... won't they? Cloverdale will have their hands full with the Cards if they make it through Russellville.

AND AGAIN... neither Cloverdale nor Bainbridge may make it to the final! One thing is for sure though, it will be Putnam County basketball at its best all during the hotly-contested five session tourney.

Fans planing on going to the tourney should try to get their tickets early. Greencastle's gymnasium will seat 2645 fans and the way gyms have been populated during season games I wouldn't be surprised at a capacity crowd.

The doors will open an hour before the games start for the convenience of the spectators.

Before going into the tourney here is the way we have it sized up... Cloverdale still in number one spot on our rating card... Greencastle follows quickly with number two... Fillmore hits the number three spot... Bainbridge is ranked number four... Reelsville narrowly rated fifth... Roachdale clings to sixth... and Russellville hardly holds seventh.

Cloverdale is still the only unbeaten in the county and one of the last 10 teams in the state to rate that honor... Greencastle drops behind the ranks of unbeaten by only two points in a loss to Attica... they hold a 12-1 record... Fillmore has been beaten twice by... they claim a 11-2 record... Bainbridge clings to a 12-2 record... Reelsville has taken it on the chin four times... they hold a 7-4 record... Roachdale abides with a 5-7... and Russellville holds a 6-7 season total.

If you would like to know... of the contest entries we have received from people guessing the winner of the county tournament... eighty per cent have guessed the champ to be Cloverdale... 12 per cent have given their votes to Bainbridge... and 8 per cent have voted for Fillmore to win the tourney. The average score, taken from all the entries that ranged between 580 and 820, was 688.

Milwaukee Braves In Legal Clash Over Proposed Move

MILWAUKEE UPI — A plea by the Milwaukee Braves for dismissal of an antitrust suit was taken under advisement by circuit Judge Elmer W. Roller Monday.

The end to oral arguments on

The club seeks to have this suit dismissed on grounds there allegedly is no cause of action and the court has no jurisdiction.

Roller didn't indicate when he would rule on the demurrer. Trial in the suit is scheduled to begin Feb. 1. The state wants to prevent the Braves from playing in Atlanta, Ga., unless Milwaukee gets another major league franchise. The nine other National League clubs are also defendants.

The state seeks to keep the Braves here until the suit is settled. Willard S. Stafford, special counsel for the state, said any order by Judge Roller must be obeyed under the full faith and credit clause of the U.S. Constitution.

State's attorneys claimed the suit can be tried in circuit court because of the local effects of baseball and because there is no court precedent that baseball is outside the scope of state antitrust laws. Attorneys for the Braves claimed the matter was outside the court's jurisdiction.

Earlier, Braves' attorney Earl A. Jinkinson said the state is seeking an injunction to bring the Braves back to Milwaukee "to be held as hostage until the league is blackmailed into expansion, or until the Braves' owners lose so much money they will be compelled to sell to someone else."

Of the 159 cars which set out Monday on the 1,600-kilometer (960 miles) second section of the rally to Chambery and back, 37 were unofficially declared out and many were heavily penalized. The first car was due here about 8 a.m. GMT (3 a.m. EST).

The British B.M.C. Minis and the strong British Ford team were thought to be holding off challenge from the big French Citroens.

Ford of France was also in a strong position in this "rally of the professionals," as it was being dubbed.

Tape Recorder

Ordered Removed
NOBLESVILLE UPI — A tape recorder being used by County Auditor John R. Randall to record a meeting of the Hamilton County Board of Commissioners was ordered removed Monday by two of the three commissioners.

By Chick Young

BLONDIE

JOHNNY HAZARD

By Frank Robbins

President Calvin Hatt, Jr., and commissioner Floyd Carson agreed the recorder should be removed. Hatt charged Randall had played previous recordings for "unauthorized persons."

Commissioner Stephen W. Rhatigan objected to the order, contending a recorder is a legal and acceptable method of recording minutes of meetings and the meeting was a matter of public record.

Hatt ordered Sheriff Mark Passwater to remove the recorder. However, Passwater merely unplugged it from an electrical outlet and did not take it from the room in the courthouse where the meeting was being held.

Halleck Gets Hunting Fine

MOOREHEAD CITY, N. C. UPI — Former House Minority leader Charles A. Halleck, R-Ind., was arrested and fined $34.40 Jan. 6 for hunting migratory water fowl over a baited area, court records here revealed Monday.

Three North Carolinians hunting with Halleck also were arrested on the same charges and they, too, were fined $34.40 each.

The records disclosed state and federal wildlife protectors arrested the four men. They pleaded guilty to the charge before Carteret County Justice of the Peace C. M. Krouse. The fines included court costs.

Halleck and six other persons were arrested in September, 1962, on similar charges and the congressman was cleared of the charge after a legal battle which advanced all the way to the U. S. District Court.
